

Jorge E. Sammour-Hasbun

Champion Inspired Chess Lessons

Jorge, your child's chess teacher, is a very special gift we have here in New England! "As a chess instructor to children, Jorge's classes are full of joy and magic. There is no substitute for chess training and instruction at the hands of a Master, and in all of New England, there are only three chess players who have Jorge's level of skill, and none with his genius for teaching."

Tomas E. Ramirez, Ph.D., Asst. Superintendent Providence Public Schools

World Chess Champion (ages 10 and under)	1988
Youngest World Chess Federation Master in the World	1988
Youngest player in the USA to defeat a grandmaster	1991
Youngest Player in the World to defeat a "Top Ten" Player	1991
Honored by the Rhode Island General Assembly	1991
Youngest Senior Master in American History	1993
Breaking Bobby Fisher's record
And the list of accomplishments continues — (Google him for fun!) Most recently...here in New England
Coached Barrington High School to the "Only" National Chess Championship for Rhode Island *University Chess Scholarships for Team Members	2003
Winner Internet World Blitz Chess Championship Tournament	2007
Named Rookie of the Year US Chess League	2007
Tutoring Gifted Chess Students Nationally	2007
Creating and Teaching "In-School" Chess programs Kindergarten-High School, throughout New England	